

B.E. is using AES 256-bit encryption where each sector is encrypted with a unique key. This offers the same protection as many Government organisations are using today.