

What other methods can be used to deploy the client?

The client can be rolled out using any software deployment tool. Examples of these deployment tools are SMS, HP Openview and LANDesk. The client can also be installed using login scripts or by using any manual installation method.