

How the client is deployed on my network.

The client is provided as MSI installer. This means that that the organisation can push the client out using Active Directory onto all devices on its network.